

GNLU celebrates the 16th Foundation Day

Gandhinagar, Jul 20, 2019: Gujarat National Law University (GNLU) celebrated its sixteenth Foundation Day on 17th July 2019, commemorating its establishment in the year 2004.

On this occasion, Director, Prof. (Dr.) S. Shanthakumar congratulated the faculty, staff and students for making GNLU one of the leading law universities in the country and called upon them to continue to put in their best for taking the university to greater heights and serving society.

Director also gave away awards to the student achievers for their excellence in various fields such as Best Pro Bono Work, Best Research Paper and the Best Student.

Registrar Incharge, Dr Jagadeesh Chandra, acknowledged the contribution of the founding fathers. He specifically remembered the contribution of Mr Kirit Rawal, founding member and former Solicitor General of India, Prof. V.S. Mani, founding Director and Prof. Bimal Patel, former Director of GNLU for their immense contribution to the GNLU's quest for excellence.

After the formal function, a series of mesmerizing cultural events including dance, theatre and musical performances by students and staff were held, showcasing how GNLU resonates with an abundance of creativity, inspiration, excellence in all art forms, concluding the event on an exhilarating note.

Media Contact:

Ashok Shah

Email: 9909960240, 8849110049